

Barbara B. Bell Bowers

Licensed Psychological Associate

Ms. Bell Bowers has been a Licensed Psychological Associate in North Carolina since 1985. She has worked with CEP Evaluations since 2007. Most of her practice involves contract testing in school systems. She received her BA in Early Childhood Education from the University of Michigan. She attained a MS in Psychology at Old Dominion University with additional courses in special education at Virginia Commonwealth University. She has taught first grade, preschool developmentally delayed students and Introduction to Psychology and Child Psychology at Brunswick Community College.